

ANNEX 6-A

Financial Services

Scope and Definition

1. This Annex applies to measures affecting the supply of financial services. Reference to the supply of a financial service in this Annex shall mean the supply of a service as defined under ‘trade in services’ in Article 6.1.

2. For purposes of the definition of ‘services’ in Article 6.1, "services supplied in the exercise of governmental authority" means the following:

- (a) activities conducted by a central bank or monetary authority or by any other public entity in pursuit of monetary or exchange rate policies;
- (b) activities forming part of a statutory system of social security or public retirement plans; and
- (c) other activities conducted by a public entity for the account or with the guarantee or using the financial resources of the Government.

3. For purposes of the definition of ‘services’ in Article 6.1, if a Party allows any of the activities referred to in paragraph 2 (b) or (c) to be conducted by its financial service suppliers in competition with a public entity or a financial service supplier, "services" shall include such activities.

4. The definition of ‘a services supplied in the exercise of governmental authorities’ of Article 6.1 shall not apply to services covered by this Annex.

Prudential Measures, Exchange Rate and Financial Stability

5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, a Party shall not be prevented from taking measures for prudential reasons, including for the protection of investors, depositors, policy holders or persons to whom a fiduciary duty is owed by a financial service supplier; to ensure the integrity and stability of the financial system; or to ensure the stability of the exchange rate¹, including to prevent speculative capital flows, subject to the following:

¹ The measures to ensure the stability of the exchange rate including to prevent speculative capital flows shall not be adopted or maintained for the purposes of protecting a particular sector.

- (a) where such measures do not conform with the provisions of this Agreement, they shall not be used as a means of avoiding the Party's commitments or obligations under this Agreement;
- (b) for measures to ensure the stability of the exchange rate including to prevent speculative capital flows, such measures shall be temporary, and phased out within one year or when conditions no longer justify their institution or maintenance; and
- (c) for measures to ensure the stability of the exchange rate including to prevent speculative capital flows, such measures shall be applied on a Most-Favored-Nation basis.

6. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require a Party to disclose information relating to the affairs and accounts of individual customers or any confidential or proprietary information in the possession of public entities.

Recognition

7. A Party may recognize prudential measures of the other Party in determining how the Party's measures relating to financial services shall be applied. Such recognition, which may be achieved through harmonization or otherwise, may be based upon an agreement or arrangement with the non-Party or may be accorded autonomously.

8. A Party that is a party to such an agreement or arrangement referred to in paragraph 7, whether future or existing, shall afford adequate opportunity for the other Party to negotiate its accession to such agreements or arrangements, or to negotiate comparable ones with it, under circumstances in which there would be equivalent regulation, oversight, implementation of such regulation, and, if appropriate, procedures concerning the sharing of information between the parties to the agreement or arrangement. Where a Party accords recognition autonomously, it shall afford adequate opportunity for the other Party to demonstrate that such circumstances exist.

9. Where a Party is contemplating according recognition to prudential measures of the non-Party, Article 6.11.5 (b) shall not apply.

Dispute Settlement

10. Panels for disputes on prudential issues and other financial matters shall have the necessary expertise relevant to the specific financial service under dispute.
